

Nevins Launches Media Tables

Houston, TX – June 13, 2014

Nevins is proud to announce the launch of their Media Table series, a distinct collection that brings a unique high tech experience for today's collaborative spaces. Nevins Media Tables enhance a creative work environment and offer an inviting, space-efficient workstation with mobility and height flexibility.

Understanding the importance of combining media and technology with design options, Nevins has redefined media tables in allowing customers to customize their tables with 27 base options and 7 power unit varieties to meet their visionary needs.

The Media Tables offer unique top options with 5 differentiating surface materials and 4 distinct shapes. With height and mobility capabilities, Nevins Media Tables provide a dynamic solution for evolving workplaces

Yet again, Nevins has produced a product with the most customizable features.
